FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 9, 1866

PULASKI, TENN

Found.-Four false teeth, in gold plate, which the owner can get by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

SMALL Pox.-There was a case of smallpox in the basement of the Presbyterian Church yesterday.

I. O. O. F.

There will be an informal meeting of the members of Pulaski Lodge No. 12, I.O.O.F. to-morrow evening at 3 o'clock, at their old Hall. A full attendance is requested.

Nothing in a Name .- The slim vote received by our friend, W. W. J. BROWNLOW, itable than the scrub. His farm will be th in the late election, is not attributable to his | popular resort for breeders throughout th name, there being no relationship, by affin- middle portion of the State this spring, for ity or consanguinity, between him and the no other man in this part of the country ha redoubtable Wm. G.; but to the fact that he was no candidate.

MEDICAL .- Although we have six or eight physicians in Pulaski, no one could federate Army, has been recently marrie ascertain the fact from our advertising to Miss Ellen Jones, of Lawrence county columns. There is but one medical card Alabama. in our paper. It may be, however, that all of them get enough practice without advertising; but we are rather disposed to is rapidly failing. He scarcely sits up at believe that a standing card in the paper | all, and his death is daily expected. would benefit any of them. The old fogy notion that it is unprofessional to advertise, is false and groundless, and has long since exploded. All doctors and lawyers ought to keep a standing card in the county paper.

Corron STEALING .- On Friday morning last Col. Rob'r. Dickson discovered that there was a bale of cotton missing from his place of deposit at the depot. Naturally enough he set to work to trace it up, and as it was too large a package to secrete well, succeeded in stumbling on it at the new portable store house of M. Thannhou-BER & Co., who alledge they bought it from a negro for twenty-nine dollars! The negro ought to be punished for permitting his Israelitish friend to swindle him so badly. No arrest or examination has been made that we have heard of.

NEARLY A FIRE .- Monday morning last about 10 o'clock the store house of Messrs. Ezell & Edmundson, east side of the square, was discovered to be on fire, the ceiling having been ignited from the tove-pipe .-With prompt action on the part of the proprietors and other citizens, the fire was soon extinguished.

Here we might appeal to our citizens, as we have so often done before, to organize a fire company. But no one seems to manifest any interest in the matter, and we sup- Greatly Reduced Prices! A GOOD PAIR OF BOOTS or SHOES, pose such an appeal would fall without influence or weight upon the ears of a listless community. But we warn them now, especially those men owning property or doing business on the east side of the square, 43 College Street, NASHVILLE, TENN. that they will wake up some of these fine mornings regretting their supineness.

RECOVERING .- We are truly rejoiced to learn that our genial friend and occasional correspondent, R. M. TINNON, who was so dangerously shot on the night of the 22d of February, at his residence near Decatur, Ala., by a negro soldier, is now likely to recover. The wound was a ghastly one and came very near proving fatal-having been made by a musket ball, passing through his breast. The attempt to murder him was most attrocious, and entirely unprovoked. Mr. T. heard some one in his hen house, and on stepping to the door, saw by the bright moonlight, a large negro making Hats, Caps, Furs, way with his chickens. He halted the black scoundrel, and for his impudence in attempting to halt a soldier, was shot. We are glad to announce that the military has rendered every possible assistance to ferret out the would be murderer and bring him to justice; and two negroes are now heavily ironed under orders from the general commanding.

ROBERY .- HENRY CORY was robbed a the Clifton House in Nashville, on Monday night last, of his pocket book containing $920, and his vest, containing a fine gold watch and chain. The pocket book was taken from the pocket of his overcoat, which hung against the wall, and the vest was taken from under Mr. Cory's head. The enterprising thief is supposed to be a good looking youth who slept in the same room, and who was missing the next morning; but about whose personal appearance nothing peculiar is remembered.

IMPROVE YOUR STOCK .- We invite attention of farmers throughout Middle Tennessee to the card of our enterprising friend, Maj GEO. T. ALLMAN. We know that all sensible men prefer handling thoroughbred to common scrub stock-the trouble and expense being the same. Maj. A. has invested very largely in fine stock, and he has the satisfaction of knowing that the country affords none better than his. Only think of a horse whose ancestors for half a century have been foremost on the turf, whose names have become familiar to every ear, and whose reputation is as wide spread as the nation itself. And who would have the common breed of cows, hogs, goats or sheep, after reading about those splendid breeds he offers to the public. Improve your common sheep that shears 11 lbs wool, by crossing with that majestic Oxfordshire buck which shears 12 hbs and weighs 250. The Major has nothing but pure blood on his place, from a horse down to a doger a chicken, and finds them as little trouble, as NASHVILLE MARKETS little expensive and a great deal more pro such a variety of thorough-breeds, or ca offer better inducements.
